- To have day to day responsibility for the development and delivery of a specific project area in line with the philosophy and strategic and business planning of Women's Community Matters.
- To deliver work with women related to your specific project area which may typically include; one to one; providing practical support and assistance; attending meetings with other agencies; training workshops; group work; activity sessions, for example. This list is not exhaustive, merely indicative.
- To develop your own knowledge, experience and skills in relation to the specific project area for which you are responsible.
- To discuss all aspects of your specific activity, potential organisational risks, planning and delivery with the relevant Development and Delivery Manager as appropriate and when required.
- To work with other identified staff to produce, implement, monitor and evaluate your specific project area.
- To work with the Development and Delivery Manager to develop and monitor budgets to facilitate project delivery in your specific project area as and when appropriate.
- To work with volunteers and students on your specific project area through liaison with the Development and Delivery Manager, Volunteer Co-ordinator, Centre Co-ordinator and other staff.

- To ensure appropriate systems, procedures and record keeping are in place across your specific project area.
- To assist other staff with the running of the Centre.
- To ensure effective communications between women using the Centre, volunteers and other service providers within the Centre.
- To promote the involvement, voice and feedback of the women using the Centre.
- To contribute to publicity in relation to your specific project area, in liaison with the Senior Officer.
- To promote equality and diversity across all aspects of Women's Community Matters and the Centre.
- To contribute to all Health and Safety related matters and ensure compliance with all relevant Health and Safety policies and procedures. Remembering that Health and Safety is the responsibility of everyone in the organisation.
- To promote Women's Community Matters as a valuable resource for women with complex needs.
- To work with a broad range of voluntary and statutory agencies and key partners in promoting and developing your specific project area, in liaison with other identified staff.
- To engage with national and regional organisations and partnerships in relation to your specific project areas, in liaison with the Senior Officer.
- To attend, supervision, staff meetings and training and development events as and when appropriate, in liaison with the Development and Delivery Managers and other staff.
