Additional Information

An offer of employment will be conditional on completion of an Enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service check. As an organisation using the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checking service to assess applicants' suitability for positions of trust, Women's Community Matters complies fully with the Code of Practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly. It undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a DBS check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed. Having a criminal record will not automatically exclude you from working for our organisation. Please ring and ask us for a copy of our policy relating to this or for more information if you are unsure.

Declaration of Interest

I declare that the information given on this form is correct to the best of my knowledge. If any particulars given by you in this application are found to be false, or if you wilfully omit or suppress any material facts you will, if appointed, be liable for dismissal. Any canvassing, direct or indirect, for appointments or contacts with the organisation is strictly prohibited and will disqualify candidates.

I confirm that the information I have given on this form is correct and complete, and that any misleading statements may be sufficient for cancelling any agreements made. Because of the sensitive nature of the duties the post holder will be expected to undertake, I understand that the declaration will include details of any criminal convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings, and any other information that may have a bearing on my suitability for the post.

I understand that an Enhanced Disclosure will be sought in the event of a successful application for the post and therefore I will be required to give details of spent and unspent convictions.
