General Description

We are looking to recruit a skilled professional into the service to join our #believeyou programme. This will involve working one to one with vulnerable clients experiencing domestic violence and delivering group sessions. The successful applicant will work closing with the Local Authority housing department and other organisations as appropriate. The additional needs of our clients may be around issues of mental wellbeing, substance misuse, involvement with the criminal justice system, other risk-taking behaviour.

Primary Objectives

- To develop and deliver on-going project work as directed by the Senior Project Worker and Operations Manager
- To work within the context of the Women's Community Matters philosophy and strategic and business planning, as determined by the Senior Officer and Board of Trustees.

Primary Duties

- To work on project development and delivery as directed by the Senior Project Worker and Operations Manager
- To have day to day responsibility for the development and delivery of a specific project area in line with the philosophy and strategic and business planning of Women's Community Matters.
- To deliver work with women related to your specific project area which may typically include; one to one work; providing practical support and assistance; attending meetings with other agencies; training workshops; group work; activity sessions, for example. This list is not exhaustive, merely indicative.
- To develop your own knowledge, experience and skills in relation to the specific project area for which you are responsible.
- To discuss all aspects of your specific activity, potential organisational risks, planning and delivery with the line manager as appropriate and when required.
- To work with other identified staff to produce, implement, monitor and evaluate your specific project area.
- To work alongside staff from Barrow Borough Council Housing department to identify and support women and their families both at the Town Hall and at the Centre.

- To work with volunteers and students on your specific project area through liaison with the line manager and other staff.
- To ensure appropriate systems, procedures and record keeping are in place across your specific project area.
- To assist other staff with the running of the Centre.
- To ensure effective communications between women using the Centre, volunteers and other service providers within the Centre.
- To promote the involvement, voice and feedback of the women using the Centre.
- To contribute to publicity in relation to your specific projects area, in liaison with the Senior Officer.
- To promote equality and diversity across all aspects of Women's Community Matters and the Centre.
- To contribute to all Health and Safety related matters and ensure compliance with all relevant Health and Safety policies and procedures. Remembering that Health and Safety is the responsibility of everyone in the organisation.
- To promote Women's Community Matters as a valuable resource for women with complex needs.
- To work with a broad range of voluntary and statutory agencies and key partners in promoting and developing your specific project area, in liaison with other identified staff.
- To engage with national and regional organisations and partnerships in relation to your specific project areas, in liaison with the line manager and Operations Manager.
- To attend, supervision, staff meetings and training and development events as and when appropriate, in liaison with the line manager and other staff.
