New research body – EBDARN (Evidence Based Domestic Abuse Research Network)

EBDARN is a group of academics from four UK Universities who are seeking to conduct and share world-class, robust research into domestic violence and abuse (DVA). We are particularly interested in providing research on so-called 'hidden' groups, such as LGBT+, male and older victims, and female perpetrators. See here EBDARN – Evidence-Based Domestic Abuse Research Network \(christopherpritchard.co.uk\)

FREE training webinar – you will need to register with the organisation on their website if you're interested. More here Understanding How Coercive Control Harms Children w/ Dr. Emma Katz \(safeandtogetherinstitute.com\)
